MATTERS ARISING

556/2020 Field Opposite Bronllys Garage – The Clerk reported that she had had an update from Adam Nickson, Planning Enforcement Officer – “There is not much to update at this moment sorry, am just trying to prove that the site is being lived on full time as some information has been provided which shows it’s not. Am just trying to get to the bottom of the new information which has been provided”.

626/2024 Pontybat Junction – Cllr Colbert reported that he has written a further letter and that James Gibson-Watt has agreed to take the matter up with the new First Minister.

628/2024 Centenary Celebrations, Royston Hall – The Clerk reported that she had received an E Mail from Lesley Emerson from the Royston Hall Management Committee. They would like to put on a properly catered for buffet tea. They have approached a caterer who has given a price for £400.00 for 50 people. The Management Committee asked whether or not this was something the Community Council would be interested in sponsoring. Cllr Williams proposed and Cllr Evans seconded that the Community Council sponsor the buffet tea at a cost of £400.00

With regard to the bonfire they are planning it was agreed that the Clerk check with Zurich Insurance as to whether or not the Community Council have public liability to cover the bonfire.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Clerk reported that the grass cutting contractor is unable to fulfil his duties this year due to having surgery. A tendering process had taken place and one tender was received at a cost of £650 per cut, i.e. £6,500 plus £150 for the moat for each cut (up to twice).

Following discussion it was agreed that this was too expensive and could not be accepted.

The Clerk reported that she had had enquiries following the closure as the person had been on holiday and unable to submit a quote at that time but would be willing to submit a quote if it was agreed by the Community Council. This was agreed and the Clerk will let the person know.

Action By: Clerk

The Clerk raised the fact that Llyswen have not had their entitlement from the precept and asked if there was anything that they would like to be purchased, if for not this financial year it could be put over to the next if it is budgeted for.

Both Cllr Hughes and Cllr Docherty asked for:

Donation towards wi-fi in Llyswen Hall

A new noticeboard for the village

A new plaque for Best Kept Village

This was agreed by those present.
